A soiree musicale was given by Mrs. Virginia Denny Birgfeld, the American soprano; Jose Erard, the noted French tenor; and Bignon, Alexandroni, the barytone of the La Scala, Milan, grand opera, last night at the New Willard. ### CHURCH CENSUS RESULTS.

Results of the religious census, taken Sunday and yesterday by men and boy canvassers representing all the churches in Washington, are declared by Fred C. Croston, chairman of the committee in charge, to be very encouraging. "Our work has progressed so rapidly," said Mr. Croston last night, "that by dusk to-day we had approximately 100,000 names listed. Our men and boys will continue the census taking to-morrow afternoon and we expect to have fully 125,000 names by that time. These names will, of course, include both nonchurch members and members of churches. "After the names have been indexed they will be distributed among the churches in the district from which they were taken. These churches will then conduct individual campaigns in an effort to induce the men and boys not affiliated with any church to attend the institution of their choice."
